Additional Details of Offense, Progress of Investigation, etc.

9<sup>00</sup> AM July 12, 1954 - Went to Huntington Park and talked with clean-up crew that was out the week before and asked if they had found anything that could have been used as the murder weapon or had found any kind of "T" shirt. To their knowledge they didn't, unless it was stuffed down into a waste basket and they didn't see it when it was dumped onto the truck. These men also picked up on the beach, but from about the center of the beach to the East end. The names of these men are: FRANK GODSEY, ROSCOE GODSEY, MONROE GODSEY, CECIL BROCK and ALBERT SIMMONS.

Lorana Silk and myself then went through the Tower from the roof to the bottom, the building next to the tower, then the guard house on the beach. We then walked to the field West of 28628 Lake Rd. and looked over a path that comes up the hill and leads to the road.
